ARTICLE I. NAME

This Church shall be called the First Parish Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, Incorporated, in Derry, New Hampshire.

ARTICLE II. CHARACTER

Purpose

The purpose of this church shall be to worship God, to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ, and to celebrate the sacraments; to realize Christian community and unity within this church and the Church Universal; to render loving service toward humanity; and to strive for righteousness, justice, and peace.

Polity

This church shall be an independent body amenable to no other ecclesiastical authority, having within itself all necessary powers of government and discipline. The government of this church is vested in its members who shall exercise control of all its affairs, subject to the laws of the State of New Hampshire relating to religious, non-profit organizations. This church accepts the obligations of mutual counsel, comity, and cooperation involved in the free association of the United Church of Christ, and covenants to share the common aims and work of the United Church of Christ.

Covenant and Faith

Covenant is an agreement which brings about a relationship of commitment between God and his people. We covenant one with another to seek and respond to the Word and the will of God. We pledge to walk together in the way of the Lord, made known and to be made known to us. We hold it to be the mission of this church to witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ in all the world while worshiping God and striving for truth, justice, and peace. As did our forebears, we depend on the Holy Spirit to lead and empower us. We pray for the coming reign of God, and we look with faith toward the triumph of righteousness and eternal life.

“Statement of Faith”

United Church of Christ Statement of Faith in the form of a doxology:

“We believe in you, O God, Eternal Spirit, God of our Savior Jesus Christ and our God, and to your deeds we testify:

You call the worlds into being,
create persons in your own image,
and set before each one the ways of life and death.

You seek in holy love to save all people
from aimlessness and sin.

You judge people and nations by your righteous will declared through prophets and apostles.

In Jesus Christ, the man of Nazareth,
our crucified and risen Savior,
you have come to us and shared our common lot,
conquering sin and death

and reconciling the world to yourself.

You bestow upon us your Holy Spirit,
creating and renewing the church of Jesus Christ,
binding in covenant faithful people of all ages, tongues, and races.

You call us into your church to accept the cost and joy of discipleship,
to be your servants in the service of others,
to proclaim the gospel to all the world
and resist the powers of evil,
to share in Christ's baptism and eat at his table,
to join him in his passion and victory.

You promise to all who trust you forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace,
courage in the struggle for justice and peace,
your presence in trial and rejoicing,
and eternal life in your realm which has no end.

Blessing and honor, glory and power be unto you.

Amen.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Qualification

This Church will welcome all who seek the work of God and whose purposes are to live according to the spirit and principles of Jesus Christ.

Section 2. Classification of Membership

A. COVENANT MEMBERS are those persons received into membership by (1) confession of faith, (2) presentation of satisfactory letters of transfer from other churches, or (3) reaffirmation of faith if such letters are not available.

Covenant membership confers both benefits and responsibilities. The responsibilities of covenant members shall include regular attendance at Sunday worship, financial support of this church as personal resources permit, and participation in the service life of this church.

Every covenant member of this church shall be entitled to vote in person at the congregational meetings of this church. There shall be no proxy or absentee voting. Covenant members shall be eligible to serve as elected church officers and on any church ministry. A Covenant member can also have an affiliation with another church.

B. FRIENDS are those persons who wish affiliation with this church and we wish to recognize them as important members of our church community. Friends are encouraged to be faithful in all the spiritual duties essential to the Christian life and to be loyal to this church by supporting it with their prayers, their presence, their gifts and their services.

Friends may participate on committees but have no vote in the affairs of this church and cannot participate on boards or to serve as officers of the church.

Friends shall not be reported as members on the membership roll or in the vital statistics of this church. They are not entitled to letters of transfer.

C. INACTIVE MEMBERS are those covenant members whose addresses are unknown or who for a period of two years have not been in communication with this church or contributed to its support and have therefore been listed as inactive on the membership list.

Section 3. Review, Reclassification and Transfer of Membership

An inactive member shall be restored to covenant membership when:

- 1) A written request to be restored is sent
- 2) The request is reviewed and recommended by the Board of Deacons
- 3) The Covenant Member participates in a consecration event.

Reactivation will be effective upon consecration.

ARTICLE IV. ADMINISTRATION

Section 1.

The activities of this Church shall be under the care of such officers, boards, and committees as shall be named and enumerated in sections 2, 3, and 4 following. All officers and board members shall be Covenant Members of First Parish Church.

Section 2. Staff Positions

A. The SENIOR PASTOR AND TEACHER (heretofore “Pastor”) shall have a central place of leadership in all the affairs of the Church. It shall be the Pastor’s duty to preach and teach the Word, to administer the Sacraments, to care for the stated services of public worship, and to promote in all ways the spiritual welfare of the Church. The Pastor shall be an ex-officio advisory member of all Boards and Standing Committees.

The Pastor is the executive head of the Church and shall oversee the work of the Church staff.

The Pastor shall be called by a two-thirds majority of the covenant members present and voting at a Congregational meeting called for that purpose. The call extended shall specify the obligations as to salary, allowances, pension privileges, and vacation which the church will assume in the event of acceptance of the call.

MEDIATION PROCEDURES

Our church acknowledges that even as we pledge our faithfulness to God and one another there may be times when there are difficulties within our relationships. In those instances, we covenant with the pastor to seek the support, advice, and wisdom of our Conference or the Rockingham Association Committee on Church and Ministry, in order that we actively work to maintain the goodness of our relationship and the goodness God has placed within it. Either the pastor or the Church Council, representing our congregation, can request such a consultation, if in the opinion of either, our relationships are becoming ineffective or unhealthy.

In the event that the members are unable to resolve their differences with a Pastor in the manner set forth in the preceding paragraph, the members may submit a Petition for Termination to the Clerk. The Petition for Termination must be signed by 20% of the members of the Church. The specific number of required signatures is to be determined by reference to the membership figures contained in the most recent Annual Report. The Church Council shall then schedule a congregational meeting in accordance with Article V Section 2b.

At a congregational meeting called to consider a Petition for Termination, only covenant members shall be permitted to speak, unless otherwise voted by covenant members in attendance. The vote on a Petition for Termination shall be by secret ballot. Termination of the Pastor requires a two-thirds vote of covenant members present.

Either the pastor or the congregation can terminate this pastoral call agreement giving at least 90 days written notice to the other or upon other terms to which both agree.

B. Pastoral Staff - The Church, from time to time and at its discretion, may call Assistant or Associate Pastor(s). The Associate/Assistant Pastor(s) will assist the Senior Pastor in the Christian Ministry of the Church.

The job description of the Associate/Assistant Pastor shall be determined by consultation with the Senior Pastor, the Personnel Board, the Board of Deacons, and any other Church Board for whose program the Associate/Assistant Pastor(s) is primarily responsible. Such Associate/ Assistant Pastor(s) shall be called or dismissed in the same manner as the Senior Pastor.

Each Associate or Assistant Pastor shall be responsible to the Senior Pastor and shall share pastoral duties as assigned.

C. Affiliation and Installation - Each Pastor shall become a Covenant member of this Church as soon as practical after accepting the Church's call. He/ She shall also establish standing as an ordained minister in the Rockingham Association of the NH Conference, UCC. After fully meeting all criteria established by the Association's committee on church and ministry, each Pastor shall be installed at a formal installation service conducted by the Rockingham Association.

D. Affiliate Pastors - An ordained minister who is a member of the Church may request and, with the approval of the Senior Pastor, the Board of Deacons and the Congregation, be approved as an Affiliated Pastor. An Affiliated Pastor shall perform such pastoral duties as requested by the Senior Pastor.

E. Staff - The Church may, from time to time, establish or modify such additional staff positions as may be deemed necessary to fulfill its purpose. Such positions shall be proposed by the Personnel Board to the Church Council in the form of a written job description and proposed salary level and benefits. They shall take effect upon majority vote of the Church Council, unless said Council elects for the decision to go to the Congregation at a congregational meeting. Positions in existence at the time of adoption of this section shall be considered to have fulfilled their requirements.

Section 3: Selection and duties of officers and Council.

A. The MODERATOR shall be elected for a term of three (3) years. A person who has served two full terms shall not be eligible for re-election to this position for a period of one year. The Moderator shall preside at all Congregational Meetings and Church Council.

B. The ASSISTANT MODERATOR - The Church shall elect an Assistant Moderator at the Annual Meeting to serve for a term of three (3) years, not to fall concurrently with that of the Moderator. A person who has served two full terms shall not be eligible for re-election to this position for a period of one year. He/ She shall preside at Congregational Meetings and Church Council meetings in the absence of or at the request of the Moderator.

C. The CLERK shall be elected for a term of three (3) years. A person who has served two full terms shall not be eligible for re-election to this position for a period of one year. The Clerk shall keep a complete record of all meetings of the Church and Church Council, and a record of any events in the life of the Church which are likely to prove of historic interest. The Clerk shall preserve on file, all documents and reports, give legal notice of all Congregational Meetings when such notice is necessary, and the Church's correspondence.

D. The RECORDS CLERK shall be elected for a term of three (3) years, not to fall concurrently with the Clerk. A person who has served two full terms shall not be eligible for re-election to this position for a period of one year. The Records Clerk shall keep a register of all members of this Church with dates of admission and termination of membership, issue letters of transfers, record baptisms, marriages, and deaths, and make a full report to this Church at its annual meeting.

E. The TREASURER has no specified term limit and renewal is by mutual agreement of the Financial Secretary, the Council and the Congregation at the Annual Meeting.

The Treasurer shall keep an accurate account of all monies received for the support of the Church or for the conduct of its organizations or committees, shall give bonds if required by the congregation for the faithful discharge of duties, and shall not disburse funds except on the authority of the appropriate board, committee or organization having authority over the respective accounts. At the Annual Meeting the Treasurer shall present a complete report of income and disbursement for the prior year. He/ She shall preside at Congregational Meetings and Church Council in the absence of the Moderator and the Assistant Moderator or at the request of the Moderator or the Assistant Moderator.

F. The FINANCIAL SECRETARY has no specified term limit and renewal is by mutual agreement of the Financial Secretary, the Council and the Congregation at the Annual Meeting.

The Financial Secretary shall not disburse funds except in the absence of the Treasurer and only upon approval of the appropriate board, committee, or organization having authority over the respective accounts. The Financial Secretary shall collect all monies due the Church and deposit them; deliver all deposit receipts to the Treasurer, transmit a monthly detailed deposit report to the Treasurer, keep an accurate record of all gifts, including payments on pledges and Church offerings, maintain confidentiality relative to an individual's level of giving to the Church; prepare and distribute such quarterly statement as may be necessary for the timely collection of pledge payments, and provide covenant members and friends of First Parish Church with an annual statement of their pledge account. The Financial Secretary shall assist the Records Clerk in the annual review and updating of the active membership roll and the parish list and prepare a report for the preceding fiscal year for publication in the annual report of the Church.

G. The Church Council, at its discretion, may appoint an ASSISTANT FINANCIAL SECRETARY for a term of up to three (3) years. Renewal is by mutual agreement of the Assistant Financial Secretary and the Council. The Assistant Financial Secretary shall share the same duties as the Financial Secretary when the Financial Secretary is not available to perform them in a timely manner.

H. CHURCH COUNCIL:
