

We see others' sins, but our vision tends to be hazy when we look at our own faults.

Following the path, cross out all the letters in HAZY. Read the message that remains.

Do This In Remembrance

While Jesus ate His last supper with His disciples, He pointed out that some of the foods would always remind them of His death for their sin: bread for His body and wine for His blood.

Find 10 crosses hidden in the picture.

Believers today continue to eat bread and drink wine.
Why did Jesus say they should do it?

Write the name of the numbered month.
Read the words made up of the boxed letters.

Whenever believers remember the Lord's supper with bread and wine, they should have the right attitude and confess their sins.

Think of words that fit the clues. Fill in the 2 missing letters. Then write the 1st letter of each pair in the 1st sentence and the 2nd letter in the 2nd sentence to find Paul's teaching.
