Queen Esther

Read Esther 4:9-14 to the Children Esther, an orphaned Jewish girl, was exiled to Persia and later made queen there. Read how Mordecai encouraged her to seek deliverance for the Jewish people.
Share with the Children Because Esther submitted to God, He was able to help her overcome her troubled childhood. He proved to her that she was chosen for a special time and place. Like Esther, we were born at the time God chose and placed into the family that He chose. Encourage children to submit to God and consider themselves chosen and placed!

Write your name in Cuneiform

Cuneiform was developed by the Sumerians. It was the first system of writing, and included hundreds of pictographs. Because there were so many symbols, it was the job of a scribe to learn to read and write, and record laws, treaties, and religious customs. When Esther and Mordecai lived in Persia, this is how the Persians kept records.
